Short Bio
Noga Meir-Goren, Product Manager, EmotiPlay, Israel

Noga Meir-Goren's passion is using technology to help children and people with special cognitive and mental needs. She is the Product manager at EmotiPlay, a startup developing editors to enable therapists create VR scenes to teach and train people with autism on mental states recognition and social skills. Noga has been developing interactive products for children for the past 15 years at Compedia. Noga holds MA in Cognitive Studies from the Hebrew University in Jerusalem.